● CHAMBER CHOIR

Gloriana presents a program of magnificent and much-loved works by English composers. We commemorate St Cecilia's Day with a performance of Britten's dazzling *Hymn to St Cecilia. Although written at the same time, Vaughan Williams's *Mass in G looks back to the music of the sixteenth century. Scored for double-choir with a quartet of soloists, this work has long been noted for its noble simplicity and timeless beauty. Composed during the reign of Queen Mary, Mundy's *Vox patris caelestis is one of the most imposing works of the period. The program also includes Holst's exquisite *Nunc dimitis and music by Bax, Rutter and Harvey.
